

Squirrels summer book list

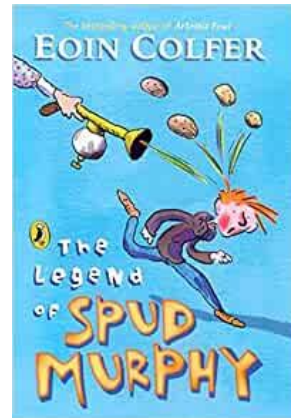

Don't look in this book
By Samuel Langley-Swain

A good book for reluctant readers with a twist in the tale.

The Legend of Spud Murphey
By Eoin Colfer

A more challenging book about spud and his FOUR brothers.

Jinnie Ghost
By Berlie Doherty

A lovely poem about a ghost who appears in the daytime.

The Giraffe, the pelly and me
By Roald Dahl

One of the classic children's authors.

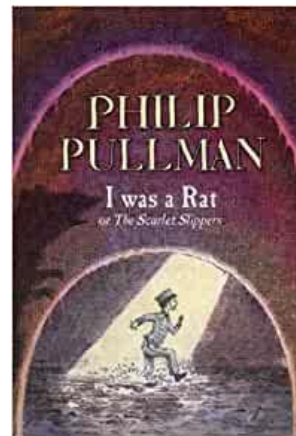

The Dunderheads
By Paul Fleischman

An evil teacher gets his comeuppance.

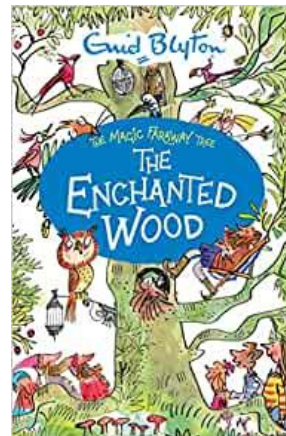

I was a rat, or The Scarlet Slippers
By Phillip Pullman

A great author with well written stories.
This one about a boy who turns up with a note.

The Enchanted Wood
By Enid Blyton

The land of birthdays or the land of toys. Could you choose?

The Penderwicks
By Jeanne Birdsall

The four Penderwick sisters take a holiday of adventures.

A World of Cities
By James Brown and Lily Murray

A non-fiction book about the cities of our world.

100 things to know about science
Usborne

Usborne books are great for information
About the world around us.

