The Abominables by Eva Ibbotson

A funny take on the abominable snowman legend. A boy and a girl hatch a plan to save a family of yetis from hunters, by hiding them in a bridal suite and a giant freezer lorry.

Harry the poisonous centipede by Lynne Reid Banks

Harry is a centipede who likes to eat things which wriggle and crackle. At the start of the story he's shy, but increasingly he becomes more brave. Will his bravery get the better of him and lead him into danger?

Voices in the Park by Anthony Browne

A clever book which looks at the same story from different perspectives, this is a picture book which is ideal to provoke discussion. There are few words and complex, vibrant illustrations with lots of talking points, making it ideal for less confident 7 and 8 year old readers.

Wilf the Mighty Worrier Saves the World by Georgia Pritchett

Wilf worries about everything – plush toys, peanut butter, the man next door – but then he has to contend with Alan, the Evil Lunatic. Can Wilf save the day?

Dog in the Dungeon by Lucy Daniels

Skelton Castle has a deerhound to protect it. But Aminta, the last deerhound, died recently. But when Mandy and James explore a creepy castle, they find a deerhound, one that looks just like Aminta.

Picasso Perkins by Adele Geras

Perkins is a wise old tabby cat who is annoyed when his 8-year-old owner creates a picture of him for a "Paint Your Pet" competition. Perkins thinks he can do better.

The Reluctant Dragon by Kenneth Grahame

A boy finds a dragon in a cave and he believes it is harmless and friendly, but how can he convince the frightened villagers and St. George, the famous dragon killer?

Winnie-the-Pooh Collection by A. A. Milne

Classic stories about the world's most famous bear. Including what happens when Pooh goes visiting and Piglet meets a Heffalump, the story of when Eeyore loses his tail and Pooh finds one, and many others.

Mrs Cockle's Cat by Philippa Pearce

Mrs Cockle, a balloon seller, loves her cat Peter, and he loves fish. When she runs out of fish, Peter leaves and Mrs Cockle is so upset that she gets thinner and lighter and loses so much weight that her balloons lift her high into the sky.

My Naughty Little Sister by Dorothy Edwards

A story about possibly the naughtiest little sister in the world. She digs up the garden, eats all the trifle, doesn't like Father Christmas and causes chaos all around her.

The Peppermint Pig by Nina Bawden

Polly, the youngest in her family, finds it difficult to adjust to a sudden change at home, until she acquires a special pet pig.

The Accidental Prime Minister by Tom McLaughlin

When schoolboy Joe's video about how he would make the world a better place goes viral, he becomes very popular and very famous, and ends up being – Prime Minister! Follow Joe's funny journey in which he makes buses banana shaped, cats have hats and traibs have swimming pools.
